SPECIAL EDUCATION PARENT ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Special Education Parent Advisory Committee (SEPAC) is composed of parents of children with disabilities from public school districts, including public school academies, in Muskegon County.

The SEPAC participates in the development, review, and amendment of the MAISD Plan for the Delivery of Special Education Programs and Services.

The SEPAC also strives to represent the interests and concerns of disabled students and their parents in each of the constituent districts. The committee will, upon request, provide information to parents, facilitate communication, and promote cooperation between parents, their local boards of education and the MAISD Board of Education.
