

There is a blue sign at the entrance to our parking lot that lists the MAISD Regional Mathematics and Science Center. Our building is locked down during school hours - please ring the door bell and someone will let you in. Once you enter the building, our office is the first door on the right.