

World History Seminar Series

3-Day Series

Tuesday, October 16, 2007

Tuesday, December 4, 2007

Monday, February 11, 2008

Our Presentors:

Dr. Craig Benjamin

Dr. Richard Cooley

Day 1:

View Dr. Benjamin's presentation here.

Click here to view the current syllabus for Dr. Benjamin's History 101 class at Grand Valley.

Day 2:

View Dr. Benjamin's Presentation here

View Dr. Cooley's Presentation here

Dr. Cooley's World History Unit Organizer

Graphic Organizers: Interpreting the World History Content Expectations

Sample Concept Map for World History Era 5

Sample Syllabi

History 203: World History to 1500 CE (Dr. Craig Benjamin)

History 204: World History Since 1500 (Prof. Jason Crouthamel)

History 204: World History Since 1500 (David M. Stark, Ph.D)

Day 3

View Dr. Benjamin's Middle School and Foundational Expectations Presentation here.

Click here for a detailed look at ERA 6, An Age of Global Revolutions, 18th Century to 1914 and a plan for teaching it.

Four of Dr. Benjamin's lecture/presentations on the Industrial Revolution (part of ERA 6) ready to use or modify for your use.

- Origins of the Industrial Revolution
- The Spread of the Industrial Revolution
- Social Impact of the Industrial Revolution
- The Environmental Impact of the Industrial Revolution

View Dr. Cooley's presentation here (be sure to click "open" or after saving, view the slide show to make dozens of links to resources live!)

Andrew Haak, Holton High School created this sample unit for ERA 7, Global Crisis and Achievement, 1900-1945.