

Inspiring Students through Stewardship Application DUE APRIL 9, 2012

For more information please view these documents online at <http://www.wmglsi.org>
Brochure ✕ Project Description ✕ Program Summary

FAX OR EMAIL your completed application to Melissa Maxson at:
MAISD Regional Mathematics & Science Center
(231) 767-7318 phone; (231) 773-0505 fax
mmaxson@muskegonisd.org

APPLICANT INFORMATION

School Name: _____

School Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

School Phone (including area code): _____

School Email Address: _____

Principal's Name: _____

Teacher Names: (Up to three)

(1) _____

Home Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

School/Classroom Phone: _____

Home Phone (plus area code): _____

Home Email Address: _____

Years Taught: _____

Current courses/grade levels taught: _____

(2) _____

Home Address: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

School/Classroom Phone: _____

Home Phone (including area code): _____

Home Email Address: _____

Years Taught: _____

Current courses/grade levels taught: _____

(3) _____

Home Address: _____

School/Classroom Phone: _____

City, State, Zip: _____

Home Phone (including area code): _____

Home Email Address: _____

Years Taught: _____

Current courses/grade levels taught: _____

TEACHING BACKGROUND AND PHILOSOPHY OF YOUR TEAM

Describe your interest or experience related to teaching and learning about watersheds and water resources.

Describe your interest or experience related to Place-Based Education, Academic Service Learning, or community-based projects.

Describe your interest in participating in the West Michigan GLSI and Earth Partnership for Schools.

Identify a major academic and/or stewardship goal you believe "Inspiring Students through Stewardship" and/or West Michigan GLSI will help you accomplish.

SIGNATURES

(Teacher)

(Teacher)

(Teacher)

(Teacher)

Would your principal support stewardship efforts implemented by you and your students as a result of this workshop?

___ yes

___ no

___ don't know

