

ENVIRONMENTAL/ VETERINARY SCIENCES

I LOVE getting to work with and learn about ANIMALS and PLANTS.

–Elizabeth, Environmental/Veterinary student

ENVIRONMENTAL/VETERINARY SCIENCES STUDENTS...

- Learn to care for animals and develop the skills necessary to enter the veterinary field
- Learn basic floral design and landscaping skills
- Learn how to grow and care for plants in a greenhouse environment
- Work outside and monitor environmental changes
- Be part of the FFA and learn leadership skills while participating in challenging conferences and contests
- Can earn up to six credits at Michigan State University

RELATED CAREERS INCLUDE...

- Animal Breeder/Caretaker/Trainer/Groomer
- Arborist
- Beekeeper
- Botanist
- Florist
- Landscaper
- Marine Biologist
- Veterinarian/Veterinary Technician
- Wildlife Technician
- Zookeeper/Zoologist

ACADEMIC CREDIT

- English
- Visual/Performing Arts

COLLEGE CREDIT

- Articulated College Credit